Donor Digest

September 2025

In the face of ongoing overcrowding in LifeLine's shelters, this community has shown up in so many amazing ways for Atlanta's animals. Lifesaving rates at the DeKalb and Fulton shelters have held steady at 90%, and thousands of dogs and cats—1,384 in July alone—are living happily ever after in their forever homes and families.

Thank you for making space in your lives for all this love. Read on and celebrate with us just a small sampling of success stories from recent adoptive families.

Adoption Spotlight

"Jessicat is now named Serafina and she is doing amazing! She enjoys snuggles and looking outside through the window. She loves her food and cat toy! She is such a cutie when she is taking her naps. She is spoiled because it's just me and her!" - Maddie

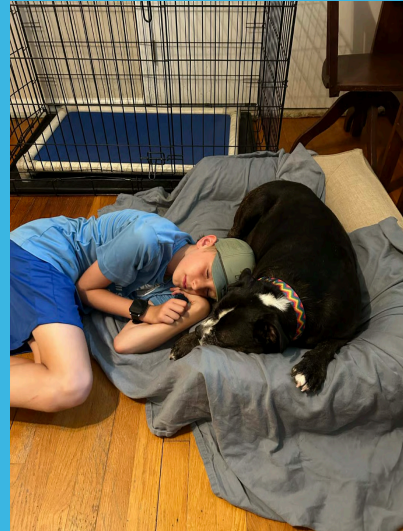

"Andre is settling in well in his new home! We've really started to see his funny and silly personality come out this month. He loves to play in the yard and on these warm summer days, he entertains himself by running up and down the stairs in the house. At bedtime, he loves to wrap himself up in a blanket or sheet. It's really funny to watch him!

He's a sweet and handsome boy and we love him so much!" - Christy

"Edison is thriving! He loves his brother, Atlas. The two of them wrestle all day and snuggle together on the sofa. The vet is so impressed with how confident he is and how sweet he is. His little purr motor runs nonstop. I'm so thankful for this little fella who is growing like a weed, I can't wait to watch him mature into the most confident cat I've ever had. We're so in love." - Emily

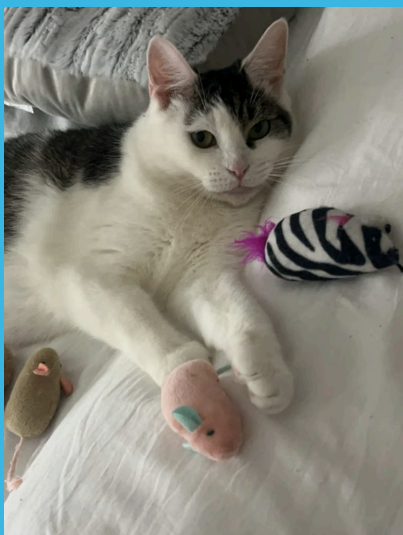

"Daisy Mae came into our life meant to be a short-term foster on her euthanasia day. Little did we know she was the unicorn our family needed. Our family had suffered the loss of three furry family members and we desperately needed a dog that would allow dogs, people, and kids to come in and out of our lives and love them all. Daisy Mae is all of this and more. She and my kids are the best of friends and she has won the hearts of everyone who meets her. We can't imagine a world without her now, and we love her so, so much. She is a sunbathing hippo with the best personality." - Kristin

"It's been one month since Madonna, now Georgia Peaches, came into our family. She has adapted beautifully to her new life on an apple orchard where she walks about four miles a day. She's integrating slowly with our cat, and I think she's starting to believe that this is her forever home. We love her to pieces. I wish that all rescue dogs could have a happy ending. Thank you for placing her and trusting her with us. She's an absolute gift." - Sara

"Floyd is doing amazing! I call him Bubba Floyd—his face reminds me of Bubba. He's so loving and full of energy. He showers everyone with kisses and gives me a big hug every morning when I get home from work by laying his head deep into my shoulder like a newborn nesting on mom." - Tamesha

"Juni (full government name: Lady June, formerly Ballet) is incredible! She is very loving and affectionate. She likes to eavesdrop by peeking around corners. She asks for pets by petting herself first (to show you what to do) and giving you kisses on your arm. She absolutely loves these toy mice and chases them around all day. Her meows sound like quacks. When I come home, I can almost immediately hear her little paws running down the stairs. As soon as she gets to the bottom of the staircase, she sits down and lets out one little quack to greet me. She has a spot on her back that, when scratched, makes her stick her tongue out. It's the weirdest, funniest thing I've seen a cat do. She is the silliest, sweetest girl and I am so lucky to have her!" - Camija

"Pelican is now TK, which stands for Tiger King. He is spoiled rotten. When my grandson comes home from school, he lays in my grandson's lap or sits under the kitchen table while my grandson is eating. He's my grandson's shadow. We love TK!" - Lei

"Cort aka Cortrillian is a wonderful boy, we love him to the moon and back. He is the best doggie ever. We are still learning together every day and I'm always there to build his confidence in his surroundings. We are doing our best to provide a healthy and happy life as he deserves and all dogs should have." - Alina
